

Everyday

NVDES

Everyday I think of you
And missing you
Everyday I think of you
And missing you

Our love was hard to maintain so we broke it
But your smile reminds me that I cannot lose, more of you
So can we can we laugh about being crazy?
That credit card high limit
Cause money's no object
When someone calls you baby
But there's no going back
Nobody cry

Everyday I think of you
And missing you
Everyday I think of you
And missing you

Baby, there's a place for us to start over
I keep getting ideas in my head of you, like it's true
So can we can we laugh about being crazy
Set aside our issues
Let me just hold you
Something bout' this moment
There's no going back
Not even tryin'

Everyday I think of you
And missing you
Everyday I think of you
And missing you
Everyday I think of you
And missing you
Everyday I think of you
And missing you

I would like to be with you
I would like to be with you

Everyday I think of you
And missing you
Everyday I think of you
And missing you
