Soon as I saw your face from that moment I knew
I wanted more
First date, Brick Lane, I went walking with you
I wanted more
You said we'd take it slow now it's go, go, go
And I want more
When you made the first move, yeah, I already knew
I wanted more

Lovestruck like a kick in the head
I'd have a hard time kicking you out of bed
Let's do it non stop, gimme a hundred and ten
I feel it down to my core
You're what I'm looking for

On the table, on the floor
I want you more and more and more and more
Because I've never felt like this before
I want you more and more and more and more
I want you on the table, on the floor
I want you more and more and more and more
Because I've never felt like this before
I want you more and more and more and more

Had one bite, I got hooked on the taste
I wanted more
Soon as I traced your outline, learning the shape
I wanted more
Ana fil sekka mish rag3a il beyt
Don't wanna go
Ana bara khalini adkhol
Have me at hello

Lovestruck like a kick in the head
I'd have a hard time kicking you out of bed
Let's do it non stop, gimme a hundred and ten
I feel it down to my core
You're what I'm looking for

On the table, on the floor
I want you more and more and more and more
Because I've never felt like this before
I want you more and more and more and more
I want you on the table, on the floor
I want you more and more and more and more
Because I've never felt like this before
I want you more and more and more and more
