Hate me

I wish that I could make you hate me, it's lazy

Talking daily, that doesn't work with how I'm feeling lately

It's vaguely irritating

Went through the motions, not too small

Let you complain when I didn't call

This could be nothing at all

There's just

Too much to do, my head just spins

So much to say well this just in

I'm under your skin

You're crushed

When I'm here I'm ignoring intonation

I can have all the tricky conversations

Right now, you can tell me when it all goes down

Why get oh so stupid

Make a bit of products and lose it

Can't keep giving as much, I keep going above because enough is enough

I just said I feel foolish

And I don't even have excuses

□□□□□□ □□□□

Went through the motions, not too small

Let you complain when I didn't call

This could be nothing at all

There's just

Too much to do, my head just spins

So much to say well this just in

I'm under your skin

You're crushed

When I'm here I'm ignoring intonation

I can have all the tricky conversations

Right now, you can tell me when it all goes down

(Too much to do, my head just spins)

(So much to say well this just in)

(You're crushed)

(When I'm here I'm ignoring intonation)

(I can have all the tricky conversations)

(Right now, you can tell me when it all goes down)
