In a distant space (In a distant space)
There's a crowd in you (There's a crowd in you)
And when I close my eyes (When I close my eyes)
I still notice you (I still notice you)
What am I to say? (What am I to say?)
What am I to do? (What am I to do?)
And is it too late? (Too late, too late, too late)
One more time with you (More time, more time, more time with you)

In a distant space, there's a crowd in you
When I close my eyes, I still notice you
What am I to say? What am I to do?
Too late, too late, too late
More time, more time, more time with you
