Tell It to Your Mother

Nylon Beat

If there is a feeling you can't hide
No use to keep it all inside
You better blow it out
And shout it to the world

Who ever may walk into your life
Or someone special fills your mind
Don't try to hide a single word

Tell it to your mother
Shout it to your brother
Tell them all that you're in love

Tell it to a teacher
Pray it to a preacher
Show them all that you're in love

If somebody brings you pain some day
So you can't hide your tears away
You better cry it out
And share your broken heart

And if you should fall in love so deep
No use to play that hide and seek
Just blow it out and blow it hard

Tell it to your mother
Shout it to your brother
Tell them all that you're in love

Tell it to a teacher
Pray it to a preacher
Show them all that you're in love

Tell it to your mother
Shout it to your brother
Tell them all that you're in love

Tell it to a teacher
Pray it to a preacher
Show them all that you're in love

Tell it to your mother
Shout it to your brother
Tell them all that you're in love

Tell it to a teacher
Pray it to a preacher
Show them all that you're in love

Tell it to your mother
Shout it to your brother
Tell them all that you're in love

Tell it to a teacher
Pray it to a preacher
Show them all that you're in love
