Be Easy

O.A.R.

Have we lost our way?
Have we lost our minds?
Is it fair to say
That either way, we've gone blind?
Honestly
Somewhere in my mind
I've gotta know what's wrong

Be easy, and let it be tonight
Be lonely for the last time in your life
Be easy, and let it echo through your mind
If a heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time
If a heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time

Ah, ah, ah-ah, ah-oh, ah, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh-oh, oh, oh

Are we under fire? (It don't matter)
Can't you feel the heat
Burnin' up (It don't matter)
Underneath our feet?
I fell in love (All that it matters)
Out there in the street
I've gotta know what's wrong

Be easy, and let it be tonight
Be lonely for the last time in your life
Be easy, and let it echo through your mind
If a heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time
If a heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time

And I don't know
How far it goes
But I intend to get there
Yeah, and I don't care
What's waiting there
It's all so much without you

Ah-ah, ah-oh, ah, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh-oh, oh, oh

And if a heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time

Be easy, and let it be tonight
Be lonely for the last time in your life
Be easy, and let it echo through your mind
And if a heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time
Yeah, heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time
And if a heart attack can't bring you back
Then it's a waste of time

Ah-ah, ah-ah, ah-oh, ah, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
