

Hello World

O-Town

I am a warrior
I am unbroken
Another day older
And the battle has spoken
Yeah

I've been fightin' all my life
And I won't give up
You get up when you fall
So here's my message to you
Oh-whoa

Hello world
I hope you got a little patience
It's such a beautiful arrangement
But I'm not waitin' for my turn
So hello world
Things can get a little crazy
But I'm not looking for your safety
I just wanna see you learn

Too many times
I just sat on the sideline, yeah
Watchin' the time go by
Well I've been dreamin' of the good life yeah

I've been thinkin'
Something's missing
Are you listenin'
Can anyone hear the call
I've got a message for you
Oh-whoa

Hello world
I hope you got a little patience
It's such a beautiful arrangement
But I'm not waitin' for my turn
So hello world
Things can get a little crazy
But I'm not looking for your safety
I just wanna see you learn

I just wanna see you learn
I just wanna see you learn
I just wanna see you learn
I just wanna see you learn
(Woo!)

I wanna see you learn
I wanna see you learn
I can't afford to wait my turn
Oh no-whoa

So hello world
I hope you got a little patience
But I'm not waitin' for my turn

So hello world
Things can get a little crazy
But I'm not looking for your safety

I just wanna see you learn
(I wanna see, I wanna see you learn)
(I wanna see, I wanna see you learn)
(I wanna see, I wanna see you learn)
(I wanna see, I wanna see you learn)
