

Seeing Red

Obey the Brave

The stakes are high, still, I roll the dice
Win or lose, rain or shine, don't ask twice
You know I'll disagree, the glass is half empty
I dug within and found my worst enemy
Obsessive compulsive disaster
I've had enough, what comes after?
It's a short rope, this anxiety
I've had enough, just set me free
Second guessing every move I make
Always around, it's a feeling I can't shake
Something inside me is screaming and I can't speak
Kill the voices in my head
Gotta get out, gotta get out
Raise a white flag, seeing red
Gotta get out, gotta get out
The last bridge out of town, I burned it
Cut the brake lines, no turning back
Ignored the white flag, seeing red
Time bomb, no seconds left
Tear it down and rebuild
My mind is running in circles but I'm standing still
It's a loaded gun, this anxiety
I've had enough, just set me free
Second guessing every move I make, no hope
Always around, it's a feeling I can't shake
With every minute, every step, every breath I take
I am my own worst enemy
Something inside me is screaming and I can't speak
Something inside me is screaming
Kill the voices in my head
Gotta get out, gotta get out
Raise a white flag, seeing red
Gotta get out, gotta get out
The last bridge out of town, I burned it
Cut the brake lines, no turning back
Ignored the white flag, seeing red
