

Kill for Me

Obituary

You are coming for,
You're coming to,
You're killing for me!

Realize, the point is
The pain comes
The body's fresh
You're killing for me!

Kill for me,
Kill for me!

Because life isn't fair,
Because the chance abound there.
Inside, souls are searching for,
Outside, the pain can't be ignored.
All around lives are the cost,
The fight is yours, terrorized cities lost.
Your world, with permanent thoughts of hate,
With their rights, die!

You are coming for,
You're coming to,
You're killing for me!

Realize the point is,
The pain comes,
The body's fresh,
You're killing for me!
