

Devoured Usurper

Obscura

A devoured usurper repents
His confession to survive
Entranced betrayer, eviscerated and immured
The progeny of traitors just ends

I overcome distress and
I can confess
I defeat emptiness
And refuse despair, in misery I swear
I will not suppress and
I will repossess
I won't regress
Inflamed, this universe

An enslaved perception descends
In shattered pieces paralyzed
In his holiness a coward sanctifies
As a false pretender, an odious hypocrite
A faithless deceiver, annihilated and deceased
In treachery their silence amends

I overcome distress and
I can confess
I defeat emptiness
And refuse despair, in misery I swear
I will not suppress and
I will repossess
I won't regress
Inflamed, this universe
As dissembler, arrant liar, unfold

I obtain, and I prevail
I recreate, and I dominate
I pervade, and I control
I radiate and enshrine your rotting soul

In his holiness a coward sanctifies
As a false pretender, an odious hypocrite
A devoured usurper repents
His confession to survive

I overcome distress and
I can confess
I defeat emptiness
And refuse despair, in misery I swear
I will not suppress and
I will repossess
I won't regress
Inflamed, this universe

I overcome distress and
I can confess
I defeat emptiness
I will not suppress and
I will repossess
I won't regress
