

Deepest Darkness

Ocean Alley

Hold me when you're sleeping, darlin'
Not only when dreaming, darlin'
Cause it makes me wanna fly
Cause a ruckus in the sky

You join me in my deepest darkness
Even when I'm cold and heartless
And it makes me feel alive
It's a love I can't deny

To be alone, a fallen rose
Will I grow again
I'll be a stone, amongst the bones
Never been seen again
And all I know is I need you close
So I can breathe again
And now I know, yes now I know

The risk you take could be the largest
And loving me could be the hardest
But I need you to survive
It's a love I can't deny

To be alone, a fallen rose
Will I grow again
I'll be a stone, amongst the bones
Never been seen again
And all I know is I need you close
So I can breathe again
And now I know, yes now I know

To be alone, a fallen rose
Will I grow again
I'll be a stone, amongst the bones
Never been seen again
And all I know is I need you close
So I can breathe again
And now I know, yes now I know
Yes now I know, now I know
