

Drinks And Cigars

Ocean Alley

Don't you think it's kind of peculiar?
Don't you really wanna know?
Why everybody's waiting for the evening show
Lights will glow, and you're looking nice
Probably stay all night, stay all night

Can't you feel it in the streets
Can't you feel that funny buzz
And if you don't move quick, you're soon to fade away and rust
Kinda rough, but it's right
You should stay all night

What's the deal, now you feel like
Pouring fancy drinks and cigars
Now you feel this way

What's the deal, now you feel like
Pouring fancy drinks and cigars
Now you feel this way

Don't you think it's kind of peculiar?
Don't you really wanna know?
Why everybody's waiting for the evening show
Lights will glow, and you're looking nice
Probably stay all night

What's the deal, now you feel like
Pouring fancy drinks and cigars
Now you feel this way

What's the deal, now you feel like
Pouring fancy drinks and cigars
Now you feel this way, feel this way

Everything is different now
You're miles from the picture now
Hope you wouldn't feel this way
But I wrong, I was wrong

What's the deal, now you feel like
Pouring fancy drinks and cigars
Now you feel this way

What's the deal, now you feel like
Pouring fancy drinks and cigars
Now you feel this way
