

Lonely Diamond

Ocean Alley

Lonely Diamond
Yeah you go against the tide
And old horizons
Yeah they separate the sky
The sky
The sky

All the fighters
Yeah you go and speak your mind
Cause there's no survivors
Soon we'll fade and away and die
Yeah we die
Yeah we die

And suddenly everything's alright
Now I've fallen in love with the sunshine
And suddenly everything's all right
Don't try to tell me otherwise
Otherwise

Lonely Diamond
Yeah you go against the tide
And old horizons
Yeah they separate the sky
The sky
The sky

And suddenly everything's alright
Now I've fallen in love with the sunshine
And suddenly everything's all right
Don't try to tell me otherwise
Otherwise

I know, it's time. I've seen the pace of which we were pulling away
And it's crazy, time wasting, what's a diamond to a body that's freezing

I know, it's time. I've seen the pace of which we were pulling away
And it's crazy, time wasting, what's a diamond to a body that's freezing

And suddenly everything's alright
Now I've fallen in love with the sunshine
