

Sweet Boy

Ocean Alley

Sweet boy, you've got a lazy heart
Sweet boy, don't give up on your love
You need to take the weight off
You need to take a day off
Soon everything will pay off
Don't stack it in your head again

Sweet boy, let's not fall apart
Sweet boy, now that you've come this far
You need to put the breaks on
Can't wait until the pain's gone
Can't wait until the rain's done
Don't stack in your head again

Sweet boy
After waiting and waiting

How can you live with a lazy heart?
Are you gonna let it all just fall apart?
How you gonna live with a lazy heart?
Are you gonna let it all just fall apart?

Sweet boy, if it's worth your time
Sweet boy, you won't need luck on your side
Then you will understand
How to be a man
You've had a change of plans
Don't stack it in your head again

Sweet boy
After waiting and waiting

How you gonna live with a lazy heart?
Are you gonna let yourself just apart?
How you gonna live with a lazy heart?
Are you gonna let yourself just apart?

It's gonna be okay
You've got some work to do
But at the end of the day
It is up to you
