

Wet Dreams

Ocean Alley

Love, you love me sweetly
You kiss me there, lovers in lucid heads
Touch, you touched me softly
Covered my eyes, as we fell, with no care into the sand

Is it a crime to always want you on my side?
You could, you could see me
And I was, I was fiending all of the time

Pace, just walk with me, lend me your ears I've got a so much I wanna say
Hold, hold me closer, everything's better when I melt with you in the sun

Is it a crime to always want you on my side?
You could, you could see me
And I was, I was fiending all of the time

Is it a crime to always want you on my side?
I didn't wanna lose you
Had to keep my head cool, hold myself right
