

As time is taken away
I wanna do whatever I want
Just sail on
Just say how long

There's no warning you'll last
Picture-perfect elapsed
I don't wanna leave you
No, I don't wanna leave you behind
(It's the hour)
But I hope to see you
Yeah I hope to see you (around)

Don't sell your seconds for stacks
I'm your enthusiast
I don't wanna leave you
I don't wanna leave you behind
(At this hour)
But I hope to see you
Yeah I hope to see you around

As time is taken away
I wanna do whatever I want
Just sail on
Just say how long
As time is taken away
I wanna do whatever I want
Just sail on
Just say how long

Holding my head up in the sky, it's redolent
No need to desire how it could've been Holding my head up in the sky, it's setting in
That there's only today, there's only today

As time is taken away
I wanna do whatever I want
Just sail on
Just say how long
As time is taken away
I wanna do whatever I want
Just sail on
Just say how long
