

My girl is the rock star, it ain't me
No time for the jock star, it ain't me
I never wanna be a pop star, it ain't me
But imma do this shit forever, c'mon
My girl is the rock star, it ain't me
No time for the jock star, it ain't me
I never wanna be a pop star, it ain't me
But imma do this shit forever, c'mon

Three cheers for the one-eared chillers
The freaks that teach us that we have no limits
Reset, get the women to the front
If the war is to be won we gotta fix it from the start, c'mon

Give it up for the free go-givers
The language of the light giving false gods shivers
Now is the time to ditch all schisms
The envy and the lust and monopolised isms

We stand with the cross-legged singers
The slow-paced swingers and the goths that teach us
That black is more beautiful than pink
And the flag that we raise has a dark origin, c'mon

Coz I can't wait to wrap my heart around you
(I can fly for the first time)
Coz I can't wait to wrap my heart around you
(I can fly for the first time)

My girl is the rock star, it ain't me
No time for the jock star, it ain't me
I never wanna be a pop star, it ain't me
But imma do this shit forever, c'mon

No junkie's getting left outside
There's a spot up front for every scar that you hide
In these walls, you are who you are
We judge you by your spark
We don't judge you by your faults, oh no

Your heart is the colour supreme
Do you know what I mean? Because apathy is enemy!
Recognise you are more than the mind
And we were sold to a world that was sold to the blind

Won't turn my back to you
Won't turn my back to you (Yeah)
Turn my back to you? No

Coz I can't wait to wrap my heart around you
(I can fly for the first time)
Coz I can't wait to wrap my heart around you
(I can fly for the first time)
Coz I can't wait to wrap my heart around you
(I can fly for the first time)
Coz I can't wait to wrap my heart around you
(I can fly for the first time)

My girl is the rock star, it ain't me
No time for the jock star, it ain't me
I never wanna be a pop star, it ain't me
But imma do this shit forever, c'mon
