

I've been thinking bout the last time
Hearing of your past life following you
A softer centre than the outside
Hurting deeper down like nobody knew

I could see the way you ache
That where you hurt's a sacred place
I wanna hold you so you don't Give up and runaway

You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are
You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are

You were dancing under stage lights
Long before our late nights, high in the streets
Now I can picture you with child's eyes
Gazing at the night sky, innocently

I think of all the pain I missed
And I feel so powerless
Because the only thing I want
Is to take it all away

You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are
You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are
You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are
And at the end of the day I feel it all

I will watch the light as you shimmer
I will watch you fall
I will watch the light as you shimmer
I will watch you fall
I will watch the light as you shimmer
I will watch you fall
I will watch the light as you shimmer

You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are

You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are
You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are
You're stronger than me
You're stronger than you think you are
And at the end of the day I feel it all
