

Light In My Dark

Ocean Sleeper

You're busy chasing places, I'm busy falling apart
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark
Hopeless and fading again, just take me back to the start
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark

What if I'm better off sinking deeper and deeper into these thoughts?

What was I supposed to say? It wouldn't change anything
Sleepless nights left drinking, feeding these demons, I've lost control

What was I supposed to say? Forget everything

You're busy chasing places, I'm busy falling apart
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark
Hopeless and fading again, just take me back to the start
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark

Let me know it again that you mean it
Give me something to feel I still need this
Tell me over again I can do this
Tell me over again I'll get through it

We have the answers to our problems
It doesn't change 'cause we never will solve them
We have the actions to your cautions
It doesn't change 'cause we'll never resolve them
What was I supposed to say?
Another day in this silence
Bite my tongue again
You helped me dig this grave then you buried me
Bite my tongue again
In the end, you will always leave me here

You're busy chasing places, I'm busy falling apart
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark

You're busy chasing places, I'm busy falling apart
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark
Hopeless and fading again, just take me back to the start
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark

You're busy chasing places, I'm busy falling apart
You know, you know, you were the light in my dark
(You know, you know)
(You know, you know, you were the light in my dark)
