

Running Through My Head

Ocean Sleeper

Leave me when I can't wake up
Just wasting life, just wasting love
So low please pull me up
Alone without your touch
Leave me when I won't wake up
Just bleed me life, bleed me new love
So low please pull me up

Running through my head
Just like you always did
Alone, I can taste the distance
All the words you said
Make me feel so helpless
Leave me here again
Oh yeah, I can taste the distance

I've been fraying at the seams
Second guessing everything
I can't watch life pass by
I've been drowning in my dreams
Finding hate all around me
Is it all just a lie?

Pull me apart, pull me apart
Make sure my insides work
Pull me apart, pull me apart
Pull me apart, pull me apart
Make sure this time it hurts
Pull me apart, pull me apart

Running through my head
Alone, I can taste the distance
All the words you said
Make me feel so helpless
Leave me here again
Oh yeah, I can taste the distance

These pieces of me, did they mean anything?
Break, remake, I can be what you need
Is all that I leave just a memory?
Mistakes, remade, I can be what you need
Pull me apart again
Leave me to pick up the pieces
And just like you always do
You keep parts of me like I don't need them
Pull me apart again
Leave me to pick up the pieces
Just like you always do
I know you see it too

Alone, I can taste the distance

All the words you said
Make me feel so helpless
Leave me here again

Leave me when I can't wake up
So low please pull me up
So low please pull me up
