

Don't Speak

Ocean Wisdom

Yeah, don't fucking speak
Close your mouth, hush your breath
(Ay, check, ay)
They know my (shut up, ay), check

They know my set, my team are Gs
Indirects and disrespects, who want it next?
I'm overseas I disconnect, you're fucking wet
You must agree I've done it best, hush your breath
Don't fucking speak

They know my set, my team are Gs
Indirects and disrespects, who want it next?
I'm overseas I disconnect, you're fucking wet
You must agree I've done it best, hush your breath
Don't fucking speak

They know my style, my natural lean
My vocal chords they all insured, and so's my fee
My flights are booked, I wrote the hook, 10,000 feet
Percocet on a jet, I fell asleep
Reload this one, 30/40
That's a good price for you, that's a good price for me
Go check my name, eh you know what's insane
Them man they wan' rap like me
Okay okay, no way José
Never on beat, mon frère mon frère
No no no no no, I can't have that my G
I copped the G, wagon for me
Depol was cray, I drove to Cannes
Me and my G, for seven days
I pree Quaset[?], bein' the G's
A prerequisite, the Patek plane
And then you bus' the jane
And now he's all broken wet
Thirteen/fourteen, that's a good price for you
That's a good price for me, you're developing your name
Meanwhile I'm developing a fame so I might take a extra G
Thirteen/fourteen grams that's a nice half for you fam
That's a few zoots for me, I got a problem with the flames
I be struggling to fly away, unless I be lining to a key
I gotta shout out me, and my domain
Got me feeling like Wayne, that's Bane's OG
And when I pree the Thames I feel like I own these streets
Out my window, I see the world
And I see broken dreams, I phone the set
We quickly met, you know the flex

They know my set, my team are Gs
Indirects and disrespects, who want it next?
I'm overseas I disconnect, you're fucking wet
You must agree I've done it best, hush your breath
Don't fucking speak

They know my set, my team are Gs
Indirects and disrespects, who want it next?
I'm overseas I disconnect, you're fucking wet

You must agree I've done it best, hush your breath
Don't fucking speak
