Hear my thought, ask me if I hear my breath
Let me go get this bread, let me flex
Made a choice, you chose me, you regret
All my seeds trust in me, know your hex
Hear my thought, ask me if I hear my breath
Let me go get this bread, let me flex
Made a choice, you chose me, you regret
All my seeds trust in me, know your hex

Open your bag, look in your bag
Girl you are blessed, ay look at the bag
Look at your dress, look at this chest
She pull on the tag, I said "it ain't stressed", the weather is next
Her feet in the sand, she and her man didn't seem pressed
I put it in sport, yeah, my foot to the floor, yeah
I took her on tour, yeah
She used to be borrowed
Now she be livin' the life of a winner
We pull out one night, then we fuck in the sauna
I used to make money, from keys to a quarter (brrt)
She knows that I did for I had to support her
She got me stressin' 'bout legally gettin' it (uh-huh)
She need to relax when I'm throwin' out roaches

Hear my thought, ask me if I hear my breath
Let me go get this bread, let me flex
Made a choice, you chose me, you regret
All my seeds trust in me, know your hex
Hear my thought, ask me if I hear my breath
Let me go get this bread, let me flex
Made a choice, you chose me, you regret
All my seeds trust in me, know your hex

Yeah, don't give my shit away
Merci et si vous plait
You've not the type to chase
Me too, stuck in my ways
You don't need dogs who play
If they stray far away
Agree to disagree
How many shows, like ten in a week
You make up your mind, I'm making my peace
Piece of the pie, you kids are gon' eat
Gimme a slice, n throw me the cheeks
She got me whipped, you get in your feelings
I pull up and park, and throw you the keys
Lift up the top, raise up the tent
The tension be burning, a hundred degrees
Two Virgils, two sips got me toosie sliding through a few hurdles
Big dreams, small circle
Like long time I ain't heard from you
We be hot and cold, when you hot you cold
I was layered with a few thermals
You know what they say, when you know you know
Still ain't much I wouldn't do for you

Hear my thought, ask me if I hear my breath

Let me go get this bread, let me flex
Made a choice, you chose me, you regret
All my seeds trust in me, know your hex
Hear my thought, ask me if I hear my breath
Let me go get this bread, let me flex
Made a choice, you chose me, you regret
All my seeds trust in me, know your hex
