Test me
Risky

It's risky
It's suicidal for rappers to even try to
To ever to do what I do
It's more than bible recitals
The lines that I will supply you
Life a line that I guide you
The right to rhyme I advise you
It's not the time to apply to
Right to rhyme and it's nightschool
Swing a sword like a knight do
I ain't lying
Just don't like you
Don't rate you enough to fight you
'Cause there's honour in a warrior
Get in a ring [?]
You couldn't even be my disciple and yes that's final
I'm peaceful but I'm spiteful with the mic [?]
Call him Uncle Akala
The father of flow and harder
With a wisdom deeper than oceans
The poetry I'm imparting
Parting oceans and other such biblical stuff
Walk in water like a rappers emotions I give a fuck
Guess I'm rather unpleasant
An aristocrat to peasants
Wouldn't spit on none of you scum if you were burning in deserts
Come with your dreadest
I guarantee I will shred 'em
I will bury him in letters with lesser effort than lettuce
That did not make sense
You are not dreaming
I'm so sick I could talk shit and they still searching for meaning
But it's risky as a Mayan field

With the notion that they could touch and crush 'em
End of discussion
It's nothing
Crush 'em

End of discussion
It's nothing
Crush 'em
End of discussion
It's nothing
