

Darkness Rising

Oceano

If I could know
The afterlife has something in store for me
I'd gladly take my life off with my head
Long felt and beneath the skin
Wherever, whatever the fuck it is
Just take me away from this plane which I live

Some days there is no hope
Some days the sun doesn't show
Endure
Endure

Some days there is no hope
Some days the sun doesn't show
Endure
Endure

O' the darkness it rises again
And overwhelms

I can feel the darkness
It's rising again
Buried alive
Eyes on these parasites
Biting away at my flesh
Bleed me away
But just remember my name
When I no longer remain

O' the darkness it rises again
And overwhelms

O' the darkness it rises again
And overwhelms
It overwhelms

I feel it but do I need it again
I feel it buried beneath my skin
The darkness, I feel it rising again
Darkness, swallow me whole!

Darkness won't swallow me whole!
Darkness won't swallow me whole!
