

Into The Flames

Oceano

Let it all burn as we dance 'round the pyre
Intentions displayed as we dance 'round the fire

Emboldened by six and it's starting again
Revelations left where it all began
Finally thinking in our own reflection
There's always been a connection
There's always been a connection

Emboldened by six and it's starting again
Revelations left
So burn the perceptions to flames, there's no time to wait
Ascendants have called for the end

A sacrifice for faith to surrender it all
You didn't cherish this life, now your kingdom falls
You're reckless, now helpless to it all
Bound by the flames of it all
Bound by the flames
Bound by the flames of it all
Bound by the flames

Watch humanity fall (Watch humanity fall)
I feel it's coming soon
Maybe there's nothing more we can do

Watching humanity fall, fall
Life scorched right before your eyes
Depleted to ashes
No turning back, embrace cold death, fuck
No turning back, embrace cold death
No turning back, embrace cold death
No turning back, embrace cold death
