

Wounds Never Healed

Oceano

Lost in time
The state of dreams
Not what to feel but constantly unsee
This nightmare, this nightmare
Unreal

Picking at scars that will never heal
I don't know what to feel
Reality no longer real
They've ushered in a new dawn of deception
To control us by fear
Reality no longer real

Nightly we watch the world crumble
Chaos in the streets
We know
Reality is no longer real
An idea to feel, oh no

My eyes are open
See their deceit showing through
A new dawn of deception
To cower and kneel, I refuse

Wounds never healed
Sinking again
Wounds never healed
Sinking again

Humanity's sinking again
These wounds will never heal
Picking away at the scabs till they bleed
Until it bleeds

Until it bleeds
Until it bleeds
Until it bleeds

Nightly we watch the world crumble
Chaos in the streets
We know
Reality is no longer real
An idea to feel, oh no
My eyes are open
See their deceit showing through
A new dawn of deception
To cower and kneel, I refuse
My eyes are open
See their deceit showing through
A new dawn of deception
To cower and kneel, I refuse

Nothing will change
Nothing will change
Nothing
Nothing
Nothing

Nothing will change until we evolve
One in the same
The awakening is close and in view
It starts with you
It starts with you
The awakening starts with you
