

X-Ray Eyes

Oceans Ate Alaska

An effortless deceiver.
She pulls the veil over her lies.
Without a tremor from the lips or a flicker of the eyes.
Words, elegantly poised.
On forked tongues, ready to feed believers.

What a beautiful lie, and the intricacy of having our hands tied.
These x-ray eyes, see straight through your disguise,
You got nowhere to hide.
Don't waste your time on lies.
We can see straight through you.. with our x-ray
eyes.

Fools, pull the wool from your eyes.
Can't you see it's a wolf in sheep's clothing?
Feeding off the false conceptions, that slipped from her lips.
Lies! It's all fucking lies.
Wash your mouth, Bitch!

An effortless deceiver.
She pulls the veil over your eyes
Filling half hopeful minds, with a half empty prize.
Words... elegantly poised.
On forked tongues, ready to feed believers.

What a beautiful lie, and the intricacy of having our
hands tied.
These x-ray eyes, see straight through your disguise,
You got nowhere to hide.
Don't waste your time on lies.
We can see straight through you.. with our x-ray
eyes.

Fee fi foe thumb!
I smell the lies of an english man!
