

Now Its Over

Oceans Divide

I picked the pieces off the floor
It's hard to breath in anymore
I won't face the pain, I won't take the blame
I won't to let this fall on me
And in the end it wasn't meant to be

I'm dead inside from all your lies
Spare me the tears you cry tonight
Now it's over, I can open up my eyes

I can't take this anymore
It's getting harder to ignore
We can't make right, can't deny
I won't let this fall on me
In the end it wasn't meant to be

I'm dead inside from all your lies
Spare me the tears you cry tonight
Now it's over, I can open up my eyes
Save your breath, there's nothing left
Not the one you used to be
Now it's over, can you open up your eyes?

Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall on me
Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall on me

I'm dead inside from all your lies
Spare me the tears you cry tonight
Now it's over, I can open up my eyes
Not the one you used to be
Now it's over, can you open up your eyes?

Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall on me
Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall
Won't let this fall on me

And in the end it wasn't meant to be
