

Rough Among Diamonds

Oceans Divide

Well I made up my mind
I'm sick of wasting time
Caught in the shadows of all of your dreams
But somehow you find a way to get inside
A way to convince me of more than it seems

You say that you are someone else
But I know who you are

You're a rough among diamonds
There is nothing beneath
You're a terrible liar
So hollow and vain

I can't take anymore
Of this feeling insecure
From all of your lackluster words
And as shallow as you are
You are drowning in concede
Tired of whom you're better

You say that you are someone else
But I know who you are

You're a rough among diamonds
There is nothing beneath
You're a terrible liar
So hollow and vain

You're a rough among diamonds
There is nothing beneath
You're a terrible liar
So hollow and vain

You're a rough among diamonds
There is nothing beneath
You're a terrible liar
So hollow and vain
