

Poem Of Ecstasy

Oceans Of Slumber

You are devastation follows our every step
I'm, I'm glowing in the moonlight
I'm trying to save you from yourself
Save you from the fray in your mind
From a future that we can't escape
From a faith that only goes one way

'Cause I'll do anything to save you
I'll do everything to stay by your side
And I'll do anything except stop what I'm chasin'
I'll do anything except save myself

We were always set to destroy
What was left, what choice did we have?
We go blind into the night
Our fevered delusions yeah
These looming illusions
Our fractured sight, oh we have arrived
To the end of the line

Until tomorrow
When we rise to fight
Another day on this
Spiraling disaster
Another stolen moment
I watch you in the moonlight
My redemption resting on your lips
The ghosts are always calling
Their grief we can't escape
A sudden sinking feeling
And we're back with them that day

Your love
All I need to survive
This life
It's all contrived

Eyes on me (Watching)
On me (Watching)
Eyes on me (Watching)
On me (Watching)
Eyes on me (Watching)
On me (Watching)
Eyes on me (Watching)
On me (Watching)
(Eyes on me watching)
(On me watching)
(Eyes on me watching)
(On me watching)
(Eyes on me watching)
(On me watching)
(Eyes on me watching)
(On me watching)
Yeah

'Cause I'll do anything to save you
I'll do everything to protect your light

And I'll do everything except stop what I'm chasin'
I'll do anything except save myself
And and I'll do anything to stay by your side
I'll do anything to save you

We were always set to destroy
What was left, what choice did we have?
We go blind into the night
Our fevered delusions yeah
These looming illusions
Our fractured sight, oh we have arrived
To the end of the line

These scars we can't escape
Trapped in a memory
A path we couldn't change, oh no
When bleeding out I'm calling to you
Can you see me standing there?
You tell me wait and don't be scared
You slip away to nothingness
I'm waiting, I'm waiting
The pain is but of bleeding flesh
Our love remains when nothings left
I'm calling, I'm calling
Save me from this, save me from myself
Let it go we can run away
And I know these scars we can't escape
Save me, save me from myself
Save me from this self destruction
