

FATHER?

Oceans

When you left this world behind
To become a brighter star
You took all the light away
Your heritage, into the dark
Since you were gone
I've lost my ground
I've faded away
Nothing more to say

But all the tears and all the pain
Won't bring you back again

I mourn you
I love you
Oh I miss you
Don't you miss me too?

I am falling
Falling down into the dark
I'm struggling
Through my memories and time

Please give me a sign...

I mourn you
I love you
I cry for you
Oh I miss you
How I miss you

But all the tears and all the pain
Won't bring you back again
But all the tears and all the pain
Won't bring you back again

Please give me a sign
Give me a sign
I scream up to the sky
Please give me a sign

My trembling hands reach for the stars
My blackened eyes search for your heart

I mourn you
I love you
I cry for you
Oh I miss you
How I miss you

But all the tears and all the pain
Won't bring you back again
But all the tears and all the pain
Won't bring you back again
