

HAPPY

Oceans

In the glow of a forgotten sun, I recall a smile
Where laughter danced in endless summer's style
But seasons turned, the light now faint and far
In my life, happiness became a scar

I used to be happy
But now all ease is gone
Life changed so quickly
Now everything
Everything's all wrong

In the glow of a forgotten sun, I recall a smile
Where laughter danced in endless summer's style
But seasons turned, the light now faint and far
In my life, happiness became a scar

I used to be happy
Happy
All I want is to be happy
Please somebody help me

I used to be happy
But now all ease is gone
Life changed so quickly
Now everything
Everything's all wrong
