

Hope

Oceans

I've lost myself again
Black waters pouring in
When it all falls down again
Sinking deep through ocean waves

I've lost myself again
Black waters pouring in
It scars my soul and aches my heart
My precious dear, the love we had it fell apart
I lick my wounds and kiss the stars
I hold my breath and let the nightmares in

Let there be hope
In between all of this darkness
Let there be hope
Oh please
Let there be hope
In between all of this darkness
Let there be hope
It's the only thing we've got
