

I Sing Alone

Oceans

I'm way too used
To feeling hurt
There's a void in me
One that I can never fill
So I sing this song
The only way I can speak my heart
But since you've been gone
I sing alone

We consumed the world
We traveled the galaxy
We moved the highest mountains
And drank up the raging sea
But now
I sing alone

Just one more time
Please, hold me tight
Somewhere between these endless hours
Just one more time
Please, be my light
Somewhere between these endless hours

Let's lose our hopes
And bury them under the ashes of our dreams
Let's carve our doubts
Into each other's hearts
Can you hear their dying screams
While we throw them away!?
While we throw them away?

Just one more time
Please, hold me tight
Somewhere between these endless hours
Just one more time
Please, be my light
Somewhere between these endless hours

I sing alone!
I sing alone!
I sing alone!
I sing alone!
