

I Want To Be Whole Again

Oceans

Longing for
The sound of the sea
Can you feel the breeze?
To calm down
My inner storms
I'm struggling with my destiny

I want to be whole again
I want to be whole again

Day after day
This cold and bitter world
Keeps knocking on my door
Day after day
Dark skies keep falling
My heart is on its way to hell

Listening to
The sound of the sea
To calm down my inner storm
Whispers
Between the waves
Can you hear them scream?

Day after day
This cold and bitter world
Keeps knocking on my door
Day after day
Dark skies keep falling
My heart is on its way to hell

All I need is
The silence of the depths
All I crave is
The silence of the depths
No pain
No sorrow
No aching of my heart
Can reach me
In the silence of the depths

Day after day
This cold and bitter world
Keeps knocking on my door
Day after day
Dark skies keep falling
My heart is on its way to hell
