

Into The Void

Oceans

Sometimes I feel
So alone in this World
And one for one the lights go out
Black is the absence of light
Cruel are the terrors of night
I want to reach for the stars
But all I do is bow down

This is the absence of light
Walk with me into the night

Feel the darkness crawling
Black and cold It's pumping through my veins
I hear the voices calling
Whispering my name

When the rain begins to fall
Nothing will remain
Inside myself
It's such a lonely place
As i dive into the void

This is absence of light
Walk with me into the night

Shrouded in anguish
Shadows painting the walls
Sick and deranged
Vacant and faint
As I cut out my eyes

All I see is darkness
Voices all around me
All I see is darkness
Walls are closing on me

When the rain begins to fall
Nothing will remain
Inside myself
It's such a lonely place
No one hears me scream
The sorrow and the pain
And I hear the voices sing

Endless
Darkness
Is all what's left of me
An empty shell
Of who I used to be

All I see is darkness
Everything is the void
Save me
Save me
Save me from myself
