

LET IT BURN

Oceans

Everything is fucked and it's all my fault
There's nothing left that's right
Can you feel me?

The grass is always greener on the other side
Because it's fake
Do you hear me?
In a world of glowing screens
Not every shining light is a prophecy

Faces pass like ghosts, but I can't find my own
Connections made with clicks, but they're just empty tricks
Can anybody hear me?

For even in the loneliest nights
The screen will be my guiding light

I don't want to live like this
We fight alone not together
I'm choking on this flood of lies
I cut it off, let it burn, burn!

Maybe Eve wasn't meant to be a warning
Eat the apple and let it burn!
Do you hear me?
Eat the apple and let it burn!
Let it burn!

Scrolling through the feeds
Sleepless forever
I see their painted lives

For even in the loneliest nights
The screen will be my guiding light

I don't want to live like this
We fight alone not together
I'm choking on this flood of lies
But I keep scrolling forever
All we see is blue light
Feed the demon inside
I don't want to live like this
I cut it off, let it burn, burn!

In this digital maze, where hearts are set ablaze
I'm yearning for a touch, craving love so much
I won't give up, no! There's a flicker in my soul
Lonely in the crowd, I'll find hope that I could let go
Through echoes of silence, I'll find resilience
The world beyond the screen, it's a world unseen
Embrace the solitude, let it change my attitude
And in a quiet moment, discover my true self

I don't want to live like this
We fight alone not together
I'm choking on this flood of lies
But I keep scrolling forever

All we see is blue light
Feed the demon inside
I don't want to live like this
I cut it off, let it burn, burn!

Filtered smiles, veiled truths
It cuts me like a knife
Filtered smiles, veiled truths
But I will survive

I won't be confined (I won't be confined)
To this virtual design
Seek the truth within
Let my journey begin
I will break free
