

SELF DOUBT 24/7

Oceans

My self-worth is fed
By a shiny world
Which makes me a slave
But I am happy to serve

Nothing
I am nothing

I doubt myself every day
I can't let go, go away
It seems like I'm not as tough
Not as tough as the best of us

Can you feel the dreams we let go? (Let go, let go)
Can you feel the sand is running low?
I'm gonna lose my mind

I want to peel out of my skin
I want to break from within

Nothing
Will ever be enough

Can you feel the dreams we let go? (Let go, let go)
Can you feel the sand is running low?
We waste our time, we lose control
Sucked into a deep black hole
Can you feel the dreams we let go?
You made me lose my mind

I doubt myself every day
I can't let go, go away
It seems like I'm not as tough
Not as tough as the best of us

I doubt myself every day
I can't let go, go away
It seems that life's always rough
Does this happen to all of us?

Is it ever enough?
I am never enough!

Let's burn their castles down
And free ourselves
Nothing
Nothing can stop us
But fear itself
