

You are sulfur
You are sulfur

Can you feel my middle finger
Tearing out your heart
Every fucking word I say
Leaves a scar

For everything you've done to me
I'm gonna tear your life apart

Come see me
Come a little closer now
So I can spit it in your face
You hate me now? Well, I don't care
All I want is to erase all memories
Of me and you and everything you've put me through
You put a rope around my neck
I loved you but you ripped me apart
And a part of me still wants you back

But I can't take this anymore
Want you anymore
We have to end this mess

I hope you die, you stupid fuck!

Can you feel my middle finger
Tearing out your heart
Every fucking word I say
Leaves a scar

Can you feel the pain I feel
While I shove it down your throat
Every fucking word I say
Leaves a scar
Leaves a scar

Oh, I won't take this anymore
Want you anymore
I will end this mess

I hope you die, you stupid fuck!

Your love burns like sulfur
When you tear me apart
Your words are like knives
Piercing right through my heart

Your love burns like sulfur
When you tear me apart
Your words are like knives
Piercing right through my heart
Our love burns like sulfur
Throw me into the flames
Our love burns like sulfur
As I disintegrate
