

The Awakening

Oceans

A-a-alive...

I came to this place
Just barely holding on
I don't think I belong here
A stranger to myself
I always try to hide
The emptiness inside me

I am sick of trying to find a way
Through this life

Can you erase the pain?
I've got nothing more to gain
Release me from the voices in my head
Can you destroy my chains?
Push your life into my veins
Will you awake me from the dead?

I am alive
The awakening
I am alive
The awakening

A-a-alive...

You make me embrace
That fucked up part of myself
That's killing me
A beautiful disgrace
I must be insane
What else can I say, dear?

I am sick of trying to find a way
Through this life

A-a-alive...

Can you erase the pain?...

A-a-alive...

Can you erase the pain?
I've got nothing more to gain
Release me from the voices in my head
Can you destroy my chains?
Push your life into my veins
Please, awake me from the dead

I am alive
The awakening
I am alive
The awakening

A-a-alive...
