

Who's that man behind the mirror?
I don't know him anymore
When did this little boy get lost?

I want to smash your face
I will tear you down
I will lower your gaze
Don't look at me know
I want to smash the glass
And pick up the shards
Cut the darkness
Out of your veins
Heal the pain

These eyes speak volumes
But I don't understand
These lips whisper my name
But I don't understand

When darkness speaks, it changes everything
Turning loved ones into strangers
Feed the anger deep within

All these voices in my head
Tell me everything I do is wrong
Oh, I wish that I was dead
And all they do is sing along
I smash my head against the wall
I'm gonna crush them all
These voices in my head

I want to smash your face
I will tear you down
I will lower your gaze
Don't look at me know
I want to smash the glass
And pick up the shards
Cut the darkness
Out of your veins
Heal the pain

Unworthy worm
Your presence taints this world
Truly pathetic
I curse the day you were born

All these voices in my head
Tell me everything I do is wrong
Oh, I wish that I was dead
And all they do is sing along
I smash my head against the wall
I'm gonna crush them all
These voices in my head

The further I look
Into the darkness
The more I struggle to see

Anything at all

Stand together
For together we stand strong
Said the voices
They were wrong

All these voices in my head
Tell me everything I do is wrong
I'm gonna crush them all
