Oceansize

left lying but i was still shaking came out but i was broken, i bask in the sunshine but i'm tied to the machine, and got stuck in a difficult scene is it all you ever needed, all you could ever want?

oh waiter, waiter make that call, i miss a queue what calls her forward as a secret band plays on i’m pleased as always, pleased oh danger, danger cause of fall, i never claimed i knew it all i start to wonder what went wrong and i wonder what i could’ve done my heart amounts to 50 tonnes and pulls me under, pulls me under pulls me under, pulls me under

(breathe it, breathe it)
pleased as always you’ll bring it far too near (breathe it, breathe it)
it’s just like this was never meant to be yeah i can recollect but i’m pleased as always and feel for you my dear and please just say it, i’m not missing you but all will become clear who do you run to? and who do you run to?

oh i try to find the words to say but i always stumble, always delayed i’ve lost myself, i’ve lost my way, i’ll pull you under, pull you under

(breathe it, breathe it)
pleased as always you’ll bring it far too near (breathe it, breathe it)
it’s just like this was never meant to be yeah i can recollect but i’m pleased as always and feel for you my dear
and please just say it, I’m not missing you and all will become clear and who do you run to?
clear, and who do you run to?
clear, and who do you run to?
clear, and who do you run to?
