

Anymore Of Anything

Ocie Elliott

I know that I like you more with time
I know that I like you more with time
So cold, I have been before and I have not been right
I know that I'm like you more with time

I see, waking up is a dream
And I don't need anymore of anything

I know that I like you in my life
I know that I like you in my life
By me you are warm and I am always on your right
I know that I like you

By me
You're the thing that I need
I don't want anymore of anything
I see
