

Hold My Name

Ocie Elliott

In the morning cold
You do wake up slow
And I get up quick
Make the kettle click
And I know I do
Sometimes annoy you
But you know it's true
That I adore you

Would you rub my back
If I sang you to sleep
Would you hold my name
Like you hum so sweet
Would you keep me up
If gravity is not enough
Will you be there 'till the end
I know that I will

When you go away
Got to go and play
'Till the end of day
'Till I hit the hay
'Cause when I'm alone
And you aren't home
I'm a lonely one
Always on the run

Would you rub my back
If I sang you to sleep
Would you hold my name
Like you hum so sweet
Would you keep me up
If gravity is not enough
Will you be there 'till the end
I know that I will
