Octavian

I swear my legs don't work no more
Can't get out of my bed now
I'm staying right here
I swear my head don't work no more
Can't get you out of my head
Stay right here

And someone
Someone told me men don't cry girl (ooh)
And I remember (and I remember)
And I remember
I remember your embrace
And then you said sitting in this bed right here
You'll be loyal and it is forever
Never again

Fuck was that guy
So in love with you baby
Should I take this knife and
Put it in my heart for you baby
How can you take my life
Tear it right in front of me baby
Thought you were in love with me baby

I swear my legs don't work no more
Can't get out of my bed now
I'm staying right here
I swear my head don't work no more (This guy)
Can't get you out of my head (Wake up)
Stay right here

Always crying man
Octavian, wake up
Aye wake up
Stop with all this crying shit, man
It's too sad

To cancel me you must replace me
But I'm still waiting for you to find one of a kind
