Revolution

Odd Project

This is A revolution, and it's so very black and white.
Sexual evolution. So wrong but it feels so right.
Shoot me up A double wide, A triple high.
Oh, Now I see why...
Let this moment tin time bring me back to life
Desensitized like the summer time.
Another round of courage and we'll be fine.
Exceeding expectation. Who thought we'd ever come this far?
Orchestrated devastation. Someone hide the keys to my car.
No don't you look at me. Don't you look at my eyes
(The Fire inside You)
They'll bring you to your knees.
And we find that we're blind. The weakness in out design.
Girl you're killin' me makin' me wait for you to find
A love that may never comes back to us alive
These words you say will burn into me.
(And I Find It So Hard)
And I find it so hard to walk away.
You think you've got me right where you want me
Tell me how do you feel.
Desensitized like the summer time.
Another round of courage and we'll be fine.
There's no need for pills girl, We got spine.
