

Truth Untold

Odds

Awaken from your slumber and get up for the train You were caught at your station and waiting for the rain

Well I call and you answer and I answer you again So remeber the answer remember the way it ends

The truth untold
will always lie between us
We may never unfold
the way our lives have brought us here

Now send out all your letters and write it in the sky For worse and for better forever you and I

Then surrender all the ammo and gather all your charms Cause it's gonna burn you and it's gonna blind you and it's gonna tear you arm from arm

will always lie between us
We may never unfold
the way our lives have brought us here

Can we get on theis together is it time to pull the wire?
We'll I'm gonna learn to unwind you and I'm gonna earn your faith entire

The truth untold
We may never unfold
The way our lives have brought us here
