

If I ever lie, girl, let me not lay with you
If I ever cheated may I not see day
I doubt I'd have sanity if I were in your shoes, yeah
But you give me happiness, 24, uh, 48
Speak or hold your peace, girl, don't hesitate
Girl, 'cause I wanna be with you 'til I see heaven's gates
Chances of loving you more than you love me grows by day
You hurt me, you can't see

All of my pictures on your wall, you done took off
You been sad for days, I know you pissed off
We have a pitfall
Seemed to tell your girls they get their pitchforks
And chase me down, I run in circles
360, I come back, you end up saying something hurtful
Some disrespectful shit like it ain't ever her fault
I built my dignity on my integrity
And so you accepted me
But lately you been bugging 'cause usually we just kiss and make up
You saw shit that you didn't like
And girl, I promise it's not like that, no baby

If I ever lie, girl, let me not lay with you
If I ever cheated may I not see day
I doubt I'd have sanity if I were in your shoes, yeah
But you give me happiness, 24, uh, 48
Speak or hold your peace, girl, don't hesitate
Girl, 'cause I wanna be with you 'til I see heaven's gates
Chances of loving you more than you love me grows by day
You hurt me, you can't see
