

Blame U

Odeal

Gorgeous, gorgeous, girl, but you ain't happy
Channel all them words of affirmation at night
Someone somewhere is hoping you ain't happy
And that's me

'Cause, girl
You make me happier
Not only did you go
But you left me with no purpose

And they told me not to waste my time
I was certain you were worth the try
You became the best and worst part of my life
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

If I don't blame it on you tonight
I will down the road somehow
Blame you for leaving me down a lonely road to nowhere
Blame it on you tonight
'Cause I will down the road somehow
Blame you for leading me down a lonely road to nowhere
Nowhere

You as an option never crossed my mind
When I had a target of your heart in sight
Even in darkness you still saw my light
Or was it only a matter of time
Need I remind you told me
You'd try for me
Spent all them nights with me
Just to detach from me
Live two different lives it seems
Like I was sold a dream
Why would you lie to me
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

And if I don't blame it on you tonight
I will down the road somehow
Blame you for leaving me down a lonely road to nowhere
Blame it on you tonight
I will down the road somehow
Blame you for leading me down a lonely road to nowhere
Nowhere

'Cause girl
You make me happier
Not only did you go
But you left me with no purpose
