

Can't Stay

Odeal

Now my room feels like Norway Norway
'cause you couldn't get it your way your way
Hold on let me tell you something crazy
Since you always need a reason baby
I felt alive with you

Guess I couldn't see I was surviving you
Severed all ties with you
Wasn't more than and getting high with you

If you really wanted to
You would've
But there isn't an excuse you wouldn't make yeah
If everybody besides you can do wrong
I guess we all deserve mercy
But to be honest I can't stay
No. No

You made me who I was
Not what I become
You made me who I was
Go make another one

Gave it a shot
Knowing you weren't perfect
But you made it clear we don't see things the same way no
When they told me a future with you would be far-fetched
I stayed defending you 'til you showed me who you were
And I thought things would change

If you really wanted to you
You would've
But there isn't an excuse you wouldn't make yeah
If everybody besides you can do wrong
I guess we all deserve mercy
But to be honest I can't stay
No. No

You made me who I was
Not what I become
You made me who I was
Go make another one
